

Frequently Asked Questions

CECAM-Lorentz Call

Do the organizers have to be based in the Netherlands?

This is not a formal requirement. However, a clear connection to the Dutch research community is recommended. Including a co-organizer based in the Netherlands helps doing this in a natural way, including visibility. It is also practical for efficient and easy contact with the Lorentz Center.

No, there is no standard template.

Is there a standard template for submitting the full proposal?

A maximum of 5 organizers is allowed, of which, one should be designated the main contact for the Lorentz Center.

Do you have suggestions for possible connections?

You can check the organizers of events at CECAM or please contact one of the members of the Computational and Digital Research Board.

If you would like to discuss your idea, please contact the scientific manager of the Lorentz Center: Henriette Jensenius, jensenius@lorentzcenter.nl

What is the difference with a regular Lorentz Center workshop?

For a regular workshop the Lorentz Center provides in-kind funding, covering the costs for the workshop venue and facilities, refreshments, a welcome reception, a workshop dinner, a poster and organisational support. The CECAM-Lorentz winner receives all this, plus an additional budget of up to €15.000, allowing for reimbursement of accommodation, travel and/or lunches.

How can the budget be spent?

The budget can be used for the reimbursement of accommodation (ca. €123,- per person/per day), travel (max €300,- within Europe, max. €800,- outside of Europe) and lunch.

Besides the above mentioned budget, the Lorentz Center covers the costs for refreshments, a welcome reception, a workshop dinner, an announcement poster, facilities and support from the staff.
